DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

Claims 1, 3-12 and 20 are pending in this application. Claim 1 has been amended.

Response to Arguments

Response to Double Patenting Rejection

Applicant's arguments filed 06/08/2011 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The double patenting rejection is withdrawn and the terminal disclaimer is not required.

Response to prior art of Sloan

The applicant asserts that Sloan does not qualify as prior art due to the applicants' effective priority date associated with the provisional application filed March 14, 2003. This argument is persuasive.

Response to Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Applicant's arguments, see pgs. 7-13, filed 06/08/2011, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1, 3-12 and 20 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 3-12 and 20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The examiner asserts that the prior art does not disclose the limitations of claims 1 and 20 either alone or in combination. In particular, the prior art does not disclose:

A computer implemented method for allocating shares of stock comprising an initial public offering, the method comprising:

Publishing in the computer system, information descriptive of the accepted offer for the shares comprising the initial public offering, said information descriptive of pre-auction sales of shares including the pre-auction price and identification of bidders who bought shares at the pre-auction price;

The examiner asserts that "publishing" is interpreted as making publicly available.

The closest prior art is:

HKEx Listing Decision (November 2004) which discusses disclosure required in the prospectus for an IPO, wherein:

10. For GEM listing applicants, Paragraph B9(e) of Checklist 1.F under the heading "Additional information to be submitted" as contained in the Revised Guidance for New Listing Applications (GEM Board) also requires the sponsor to disclose to the Listing Division the following:-

"In respect of the shares held by shareholders, the cost of investment in such shares (in total and per share basis), and details of each subscription/acquisition/disposal including the date of subscription/transfer, the identity of the disposing/acquiring shareholder, subscription money/consideration paid, number of shares and percentage of equity interest received, the basis for the consideration paid, etc."

However, HKEx does not qualify as prior art.

Entrepreneur discloses Pre-IPO Preparations wherein;

Starting with the company's IPO prospectus, every fact that an outside investor might reasonably want to know will need to be detailed in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. Once the offering is completed and the investment bankers have moved on, management will need to be aware of the multitude of ongoing disclosure and filing rules administered by the SEC and the listing exchange. These include quarterly financial and business disclosures on Form 10-Q and annual disclosures on Form 10-K, which must be signed by the board, both under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

However, Entrepreneur falls short of disclosing the limitations as claimed.

Maltzmann (2002/0107779) discloses enabling a fixed price purchase within an online auction environment, wherein;

A method of allowing a seller in an auction facility to offer buyers the option of buying an offering at a pre-auction seller determined price or using a regular auction process. If a buyer is given the option to purchase at the seller determined price and decides to use the regular auction process by submitting a bid, the option to buy the offering at a pre-auction seller determined price is discontinued.

However, Maltzmann does not disclose the limitations as claimed.

Sheehan (2001/0049647) discloses a multi-round auction and internet marketplace, wherein;

A marketplace comprises an Internet website and webserver that allows frequent buyers and sellers to pre-register and pre-qualify one another so that surplus merchandise can find a quick and ready market. Such marketplace includes retail content, authenticated trading, staged auctions, trading tools, and integrated purchase-order fulfillment. Pre-registered and pre-qualified users are issued passports to the website. Sellers issue visas to potential buyers they wish to invite to select pre-auctions of special merchandise. Any remaining merchandise is then offered in a public auction.

However, Sheehan does not disclose the limitations as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
